College Health Symposium

Tuesday May 19, 2015

Welcome to 2015 College Health Symposium sponsored by New York State College Health Association and hosted by SUNY Geneseo. This year our focus is on hot topics that every health professional needs to know. Take charge of your own wellbeing as a professional to avoid burnout, plus learn about cultural diversity where it matters most—in the healthcare setting. When it comes to alcohol and other drugs, using trained peer advocates is a cutting-edge strategy. Finally, learn evidence-based practices to care for and treat those who are survivors of sexual assault. For more information visit
